

JBC Updates

- The next JBC Synergy Meeting on 2/17 will focus on the Human Biosamples Core, especially samples from Boston Children's Hospital. Dr. Lauren Henderson, Instructor of Pediatrics at Harvard Medical School, will be speaking about some of the biorepositories available at Boston Children's Hospital. Ricardo Grieshaber, from Dr. Nigrovic's lab, will discuss related research using some samples collected by Dr. Henderson. For remote access, please contact Minah.
- JBC microgrants deadline is now due 2/13. Please submit your application via our website: www.jbcwebportal.org. Please note you will have to register as a member to submit your form.
- JBC will be launching its mentorship program next month. This program will provide interested JBC Young Investigators with more senior mentors outside their research groups and/or administrative hierarchy. Each interested JBC Young Investigator will complete a JBC Mentee Application and be matched with a more senior mentor with appropriate expertise. Stay tuned for more updates!
- Upcoming JBC Synergy meeting on March 31st
Location & Time: BTM 02006B, 12:30-1:30 p.m.
